NOTES OF EUREKA

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, Dec. 12.—Carl Miller, night bartender at the New Resort saloon, had a narrow escape for his life Thursday morning. About 2 o'clock he started to close up the saloon and requested one William Cullip, who claims that he is an employee of the saloon, to retire, to which Cullip objected, but finally left the resort. As soon as he got outside he pulled a revolver and took a shot at Miller through the window, barely missing his intended victim's head. Miller, who is the constable of Silver City, rushed outdoors and placed his assailant under arrest and had him taken to Eureka, where he is confined in the county jail. He will have a hearing before Judge Thornberg at Silver City Monday.

MURRAY NEWS NOTES

Special to The Tribune.

MURRAY, Dec. 12.—City Recorder W. J. Warden of Murray has reported that all the city's indebtedness is liquidated and that a balance in the neighborhood of from $1000 to $2000 is now on hand. Estimating the balance at $1500, the first of the year the city will have in the neighborhood of $2000 paid into the treasury on licenses, then adding approximately $6000 that it is estimated still is due the city from the county clerk for taxes collected, it will make a total of $10,000 that the city will be ahead. All the principal sidewalks in Murray have been paved and contracts let sufficient to make a total of three miles of paved streets within the city limits.

The committee which has the Utah Light and Railway company's franchise in hand at Murray, after discussing it for months past, has finally drawn up a franchise asking for a 5-cent fare from any part of Salt Lake to the Little Cottonwood creek, to go into effect immediately, and a 5-cent fare from Little Cottonwood creek to the southern limits of Murray City. The fare is to be reduced to the southern limits of Murray, making a 5-cent fare from any part of Murray City to any part of Salt Lake City. The line must be extended within a short time and twenty-minute service maintained thereon. The length of the franchise was decided to extend for twenty-five years.

Deputy Treasurer Ousted.

Special to The Tribune.

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 12.—State Treasurer Hastings, it is said, has ousted Deputy Treasurer Lynch, the cause not being known to the public. However, it is rumored that the change was made on account of friction between the two officers. The state treasurer's office has for some time been in rather a chaotic condition, and wholesale charges have been made by the editor of the Boise Statesman and others as to violations of the law by the man at the helm in that office. A niece of the state treasurer is to be made deputy treasurer, it is understood.

WEISER NEWS NOTES

Special to The Tribune.

WEISER, Ida., Dec. 12.—Two men are in the Washington county jail and one in the hall, charged with a statutory offense upon the person of Rebekah Sweet, a fifteen-year-old girl. One of the men is her brother. The three were captured recently and returned to this city. Four men are mixed up in the affair, but one has so far eluded the officers. The girl is a delicate constitution. Suit was filed recently against the Short Line Railroad company by Joseph Thrasher of this city for $15,000 damages. Thrasher's six-year-old son was killed last June by a westbound passenger train near this city, and the father claimed negligence on the part of the railroad company as the cause. The case came up for hearing in the district court in this city last week and occupied four days, there being a large number of witnesses on each side. The jury rendered a verdict for $15,000 in favor of the plaintiff.

Several hundred acres of apple trees have been set out in this section this fall, and many more will be set out next spring. The Weiser country is rapidly coming to the front as an apple country.

Weiser is enjoying a building boom this fall. More buildings are in course of construction now than for several years. One of the buildings is a $15,000 schoolhouse, another an $8000 church, a $5000 residence, and numerous residences costing from $1000 to $3500.

The state veterinarian came down from Boise last week and killed about twenty head of fine cattle at the Idaho Industrial institute that were infected with tuberculosis. It was a serious loss to the institute, as it ruined their fine herd of milk cows. The stock were placed under quarantine some time ago, and some of them have been sold out of quarantine, and President Padlock of the institute is under arrest for disposing of the cattle.

ONE MORE $450.00 LUDWIG PIANO

TO BE GIVEN AWAY AS A SPECIAL PRIZE

TO THE CONTESTANT POLLING THE MOST VOTES ISSUED BETWEEN DEC. 5 AND DEC. 19, 1908.

A beautiful $450.00 Ludwig Piano is offered as a special prize to the contestant polling the greatest number of votes which may be issued during these two weeks. No votes issued previous to Dec. 5 will be counted in making our decision on the winner of this special prize.

Some contestants have been holding votes ever since the contest opened, while others have voted all the votes they had, and it would not be fair to offer this special prize to the contestant turning in the greatest number of votes unless we made the provision that it must be voted in between Dec. 5 and Dec. 19 on new business, as it would give some of the contestants an unfair advantage over others. This is our reason for making the above rule.

All votes issued between these dates, from 10 o'clock on Dec. 5 to 10 p.m., December 19, will be counted by well known judges in making a decision.

FREE

New contestants Stand just as good a chance of earning this $450 prize as old contestants

It does not make any difference whether you are in the contest or not—if you only have 2,000 votes, or even if you have not entered the contest, you stand just as good a show of winning a prize as somebody who already has 100,000 or more votes, because this special prize is to be given to the contestant polling the greatest number of votes which may be issued between Dec. 5 and Dec. 19.

If you start in as a new contestant and can get more votes during these two weeks and can make a greater increase than any one of the old contestants, you will be the winner of the piano. Now, this means that if you earn 150,000 votes and one of the old contestants makes an increase of only 100,000 votes, you would be the winner, although the old contestant might have a total of 450,000 votes.

The prize is to be given simply on the increase and not on the total, and remember that the votes counted in the contest for this special prize must be new votes issued between Dec. 5 and Dec. 19.

We Do Just As We Promised In Our Advertisements HERE IS THE PROOF

We want to clean up the piano accounts, if possible, before the contest closes, and to make it an object to you to pay up your entire balance we will consider the payment the same as new business, provided you settle the entire account. Partial payments on accounts will be considered old business, same as heretofore. $101.00 balance would entitle you to 101,000 votes instead of 50,500, as heretofore, and $201.00 balance would entitle you to 201,000 votes, instead of 100,500, as heretofore. Besides these votes will count on the special prize to be given to the one making the greatest increase in votes cast before Dec. 19.
